

Terms and conditions

1. Service charges for our packages support students with the technical aspects of the counseling process. While we provide authentic information, cutoff trends, and admission probabilities, purchasing a package does not guarantee admission.
2. Payments for our services must be made electronically to our company's account. We do not accept cash under any circumstances.
3. Service charges may change over time. The charges mentioned on the website at the current date will be the final applicable cost.
4. We accept limited bookings based on our team's capacity. Service charges may increase based on demand, and bookings will reopen when slots become available.
5. Students must provide correct contact details for communication purposes.
6. Updates will be delivered via SMS, phone calls, and WhatsApp, but we are not responsible for technical issues on the user's end.
7. Students/parents must submit all required documents and correct information on time. Delayed availability of documents or incorrect information may cause problems.
8. Students/parents are advised to cooperate with our experts/representatives during counseling sessions, as admissions are based on MCI guidelines.
9. For counseling packages, choice filling will be done by our experts. User IDs and passwords must be shared with our team. Changing passwords or choice sequences without informing us will result in package discontinuation without any refund.
10. Students may need to visit states for document verification during the counseling process. Our management is not responsible if a student misses any counseling sessions.
11. Existing clients can upgrade their packages subject to availability. Downgrading is not permitted.
12. We do not share students' contact details with third parties. Our directors' contact numbers should not be shared with any website or person.
13. We prioritize customer satisfaction and value feedback. Suggestions and complaints will be addressed promptly by our PR department. Legal disputes will be subject to Jaipur, Rajasthan jurisdiction.

For inquiries, call +91 9929611152 or 0141-4982756, or email us at info@v4edu.in.